

Friendship

That's what friends are for!

Jesus and Friends

Jesus had lots of best friends for example his disciples or Lazarus, Martha and others.

In the New Testament we meet people who show what friends are for.

See, what friends are for.
Luke 5,17-26

A man is very ill, he can't walk. His friends know that only Jesus can help their friend. So they carry him to Jesus. But they can't get to Jesus because there are too many people in front of the house. They have a brilliant idea – they brake the ceiling of the house and let their friend down to Jesus, and Jesus cures him. Now the man can start a new life.

What are friends to us?

Some ideas of pupils – RE, class 8

Can I use your mobile phone, please?

Yes, of course.

Friends help each other.

These are not my friends.

Friends help each other.
They criticize each other
But in a friendly way,
if one of them
does something wrong.

Friendship means to be there
if a friend needs me.

Hallo, can you help me with maths, please?

I will pass the maths test much better tomorrow.

Thank you, I feel better now.

It is not important what a friend looks like but how somebody acts as a friend.

What are friends for?

What's your opinion?

Friendship is like bread for childrens lives.
